

Dear Class:

On Monday in class we will continue our discussion of the Barrett case and discuss the case following it, Peters v. Bowman. I am attaching the cases again for your convenience. I am also attaching a few documents that we will use and discuss in class, as well as the memo on electronic communications we discussed at our last class. Please print out and bring to class the Barrett and Peters case document, the case briefing guidelines, the case briefing exercise document and the New York Times article on bullfighting.

Thank you.

I look forward to seeing you on Monday.

Best,

Leslie
